National Park Service employee found deceased in residence at Grand Canyon National Park

Grand Canyon, Ariz. – Eric York, a 37-year-old wildlife biologist at Grand Canyon National Park, was found deceased in his residence on the South Rim this morning.

York was found unresponsive at his home at approximately 8:30 a.m. and pronounced dead by emergency personnel shortly thereafter. His body has been turned over to the Coconino County Medical Examiner's Office in Flagstaff, Arizona. No further details are available at this time. The cause of death is under investigation by the NPS.
